

Directions to the Whitney Center: On Black Mountain Rd, near the Jackson Grammar School and Jackson Post Office. GPS is not always accurate for this location.

From the South: From NH Rt. 16 North

- Turn right over the Jackson covered bridge onto 16 A.
- This loop road will take you to the center of the village and a confusing intersection around the war memorial.
- You will see the school ahead and to the right.
- Proceed straight ahead past the school's two entrances to the driveway/parking area for the post office, third drive on the right.
- At the end of the post office (and café, florist and puzzle shop) parking area is the Whitney Center: a red barn-like building.
- Parking is just around the left side of the Whitney.

From the North on Rt. 16 South:

- Turn left onto Rt. 16 A. at brown art gallery across from brick service station.
- Follow the Rt. 16 A loop road past the church and Old Library, over the stone bridge to a confusing intersection around the war memorial in the center of the village.
- The school will be in front and to the left.
- Bear left to the yield sign with the memorial on your right.
- The Whitney parking area is accessed through the post office parking area. The post office is further ahead to the left of the school, and the Whitney is between the post office and shops and the school.
- Turn left at the yield onto Black Mountain Rd.
- Take the third right into the post office parking area.
- At the end of the post office (and café, florist and puzzle shop) parking area is the Whitney Center: a red barn-like building.
- Parking is just around the left side of the Whitney.
